International Guild of Bit & Spur Makers Code of Ethics, as a member of the Guild:

1. I will make a sincere effort to improve my skills and achieve a high standards of quality in my work.
2. I will use fairness, honesty, and integrity in dealing with the public, clients, and colleagues.
3. I will uphold the Bylaws of our Guild and support those who are looking after the success and welfare of the Guild and its members.
4. I will support the Guild in its efforts to inform and educate all those interested in the art of building bits and spurs.
5. I will uphold and defend this code and will conduct myself at all times in a manner that will bring credibility, honor and pride to the Guild and its members.
6. I understand that the Guild will not tolerate unethical practices and will review any complaints from the public, clients, and/or colleagues; and that any wanton violation of good ethics can bring expulsion from the Guild. A member in question will be reviewed in a fair and impartial manner with a concerted effort to obtain proof before any action is taken. Without proof, a member will be placed under observation until that determination can be made.
7. I understand that acceptance of this code is a requirement for membership.

I, _____, attest to the accuracy of the above responses and agree to abide by the IGBSM Code of Ethics.
